Dear Department of Labor,

I have recently become aware of your attempt to enact the above-reference proposed rule and I wish to voice my opposition. I have been trading options for years as part of a successful retirement management strategy. Excluding this tool as one of the ways that I grow my retirement is going to be a significant constraint and potentially a hardship on me. I do not feel that you should interfere with an individual's right to manage his/her own retirement funds.

Please terminate your effort to enact the proposed rule.
